The Empty Vase And Full Hearts in Lent

Many churches do not allow flowers in the sanctuary during Lent. When the chancel remains empty of flowers, the greenery on Palm Sunday and then the burst of Lilies and color on Easter Sunday are much more striking. The lack of flowers contributes to our awareness of the barrenness of our lives without a strong relationship with Jesus.

We can still remember our loved ones or celebrate special days in the bulletin and on the screen, however, with a donation to Kindercottage in lieu of flowers. Just sign up on the "flower chart" in Berry Parlor, write a check for $20 to the church to be forwarded to Kindercottage and we will list your memorial or celebration in the Weekly Messenger for 2 Sundays and project a picture on the screen during the announcements.

A Mission and Outreach Opportunity for St. John UCC

We have started our Free Soup Lunch (11:30am to 1pm) for ANYONE beginning Fridays in March. Various teams, families and individuals have signed up to sponsor the meals; others have signed up to serve the meals. Thank you ALL!

Now, come and enjoy! We hope that church members will come and enjoy a soup lunch and some fellowship and we hope to serve needy individuals from the community with cheerful hospitality and a hearty bowl of soup. The meal is free. For those who wish to pay, we'll have a free will plate set out. See the bulletin board or talk to Pastor Mike, Ande Yakstis or Jim Stille for more information.

Our children are doing some very adult things this Lent. Kathryn and Eli narrated a power point presentation drawing our attention to the need at Lisa's Angels Day Care Center for new playground equipment. They and others have been standing at the doors collecting our loose change for that mission.

In Sunday School our children will be learning about the death and resurrection of Jesus.

They are also wonderfully hospitable. They invite visiting children to fully participate in whatever they are doing that Sunday, escort them up to the steps of the chancel for our divine interruption and make sure the visitors know there is candy in the basket.

We had youth and children on hand during the pancake and sausage supper, clearing tables, helping folks carry their plates to their seats, refilling drink cups and helping cook and clean up.

Did you see how well the acolytes Ali and Josie adapted to the candles being in a different spot on the altar, and a Christ candle at the foot of the cross?

They all seem driven to help out—help those in need, help our mission and ministry efforts and help out here at church in worship and fellowship times.

Best of all, if you look at their faces when you ask them to help with something you will see satisfaction, excitement and joy. They are eager to help and they are very capable of the tasks.

They are working together to help Jeannine Burk and the conference's Ecuador Partnership have a great mission trip. They are part of Christ's mission in this congregation and stretching to another continent, bridging differences of language, culture, history and even worship style. A big mission for such young disciples.

And they are leading the way for us as they do all this with such eagerness and joy. As we go through this Lenten season practicing our spiritual disciplines—our prayers, whatever fast we may set for ourselves, our alms giving and our work here at the church—let us follow their example and practice these disciplines with eagerness and joy.

We practice these spiritual disciplines to grow closer to God—so we ought to be joyful in the practice. We forget that sometimes. Thank God for our children and the lessons they teach us. Have a joy-filled Lent!

Pastor Mike

Some Irish Proverbs for St. Patrick's Day

- A good laugh and a long sleep are the best cures in the doctor's book.
- Better to be quarrelling than lonesome.
- All happy endings are beginnings as well.
- A man is no more encumbered by his soul than the steed by his bridle or the lake by the swan.
- A man who holds good cards would never say if they were dealt wrong.
- God is good but never dance in a small boat.
- You'll never plow a field by turning it over in your mind.

Praying Together

All things bright and beautiful,
all creatures great and small,
all things wise and wonderful:
the Lord God made them all. Amen.

– Cecil Frances Alexander

Biblically speaking, to repent doesn't mean to feel sorry about, to regret. It means to turn, to turn around 180 degrees. It means to undergo a complete change of mind, heart, direction. Turn away from madness, cruelty, shallowness, blindness. Turn toward the tolerance, compassion, sanity, hope, justice that we all have in us at our best.

– Frederick Buechner
from Secrets in the Dark: A Life in Sermons

Love is unselfishly choosing for another's highest good.

– C.S. Lewis

To see a world in a grain of sand and a heaven in a wild flower, hold infinity in the palm of your hand
and eternity in an hour.

– William Blake from “Auguries of Innocence”

You say grace before meals. All right.
But I say grace before the play and the opera,
And grace before the concert and pantomime,
And grace before I open a book,
And grace before sketching, painting,
Swimming, fencing, boxing, walking, playing,
dancing;

And grace before I dip the pen in the ink.

– GK Chesterton from an early notebook

For those who mourn:

We pray for the family and friends of Marie Pearson who died Feb. 7. Services were Feb. 12 at the church. Marie was St. John UCC's longest serving member, having joined the church through confirmation on April 13, 1930 when she was 12.

Thank you.

The family of Marie Pearson thanks all of her church family for prayers offered, memorials donated, cards sent and kind words spoken upon her recent death. She was a kind woman who died just 12 days shy of her 94th birthday. A special thank you to the women who delivered communion to her, the secretaries who sent the bulletins, and the ministers who visited her at Rosewood Care Center. Your support has meant so much to our family.

Thanks,
Rosalie (Pearson) Barabas

Getting to Know You

Hello, I'm Joe Hanfelder.

I am number 11 of a family of 13 children. There were 8 girls and 5 boys. Bill and Josephine were our parents.

My

grandpa is Frank Hanfelder who was a charter member of St. John. I graduated from Roxana High School.

I was confirmed here at St. John UCC, married Judy Tuttle here on June 18th, 1963. We had three daughters, Michelle, Melissa and Mandy. We also have six grandchildren, Adam, Dennis, Nathan, Noah, Allie and Josie. I have worked and owned three convenience stores: Melville Dairy Store, Handy Pantry, and Meadowbrook Dairy Store. I also owned a 7UP soda distributorship in south St. Louis, started a company that sold items like Slim Jim's, Jack Link Meat Sticks, lighters, sunglasses, aspirin, etc. Finally I owned Joe and Judy's Food and Drink in Bethalto, IL. As you can see we worked seven days a week, a lot of help came from Judy and the girls.

After retiring I was able to come back to church and was elected to the Ad Team in 2008 and was Moderator my last year and enjoyed it. Some of my hobbies are: fishing, playing cards, gardening and spending time with my grandchildren. Nathan moved in with us this past year and is currently finishing High School here to go to college in the area.

Needing money for a new roof here at St. John UCC, with the help of Dr. Beebe, the Barnabas Team was born. Help came from everywhere, volunteers, team members, donations, ticket sales. Hoping to continue this we will be able to take care of many needed things here at St. John UCC.

Bill & Josephine Hanfelder

Mystery Picture

Use a blue crayon to color all the spaces that have a letter in them. What do you see?

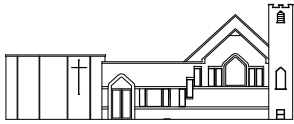

Here's a hint: in Hebrews 3:6, it says, "Christ, however, was faithful over God's house as a son, and we are his house if we hold firm the confidence and the pride that belong to hope."
